4. If you could go back in time, what year would you travel to?

As long as it was temporary, I'd love to go back to Scotland around the 1200's - when men were rough and wore kilts all the time. But, eventually, I'll need a shower and a toothbrush so I couldn't stay for long.

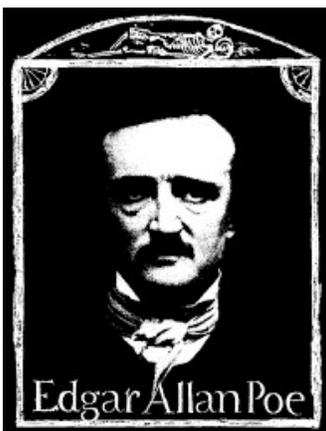

5. Which of the five senses would you say is your strongest?

Smell - I detect odors no one else does!

6. How many languages do you speak? Which one/s aside from English?

A tiny bit of Spanish and German

7. If you had to describe yourself in three to five words, what would they be?

Stone cold voice of reason (or so my girlfriends tell me)

8. Share two or three things from your bucket list.

Visit Scotland, visit Ireland, lose weight and keep it off!

9. Are you an early bird or a night owl?

Early bird, even when I don't want to be. My cat insists!

10. What would you most like to learn and why?

Better writing skills. I am always wanting to be better. There's always room for improvement. Oh, and real kickboxing - just cuz!

11. What's your favorite book/movie of all time and why did it speak to you so much?

read it when I was in high school. Love to be chilled and his stories always made my skin crawl. Scary without the blood!

Favorite movie collection is the James Bond Series. Especially, Sean Connery and Roger Moore movies. My dad loved to watch them and it was something we were able to do together. Of course, Sean Connery was my first actor crush!

12. Tell me five things that I'd see when I walk in your front door?

Sammy, my fat cat!

Sophia, my nosy cat!

Curtis playing a video game on his phone.

My computer

Editing supplies (highlighters, red pen, post its) all over my table.
